There are 56 Provincial Constituencies in Alberta. The southerly 28 have for their northerly boundary, that boundary of Red Deer, Stettler, and Coronation.

Red Deer has for its northerly boundary that boundary of township 39 from the North Saskatchewan River to Blindman River and following Blindman and Red Deer Rivers to the bend of said Red Deer River at Content.

Stettler the northerly limit of township 41 from Buffalo Lake to Battle River.

Coronation, Battle River the north limit of township 40 across ranges 8-9 & 10 west of the 4th and northerly limit of township 38 across ranges 1.2.3.4.5.6 & 7, west of the 4th.

The northerly limit of township 38 carried across the Province would add to said Constituencies 5 townships, and cut off 19 townships a decrease of 14. and the number of Licenses is 71·134% of the whole

Across the entire Surveyed portion of the Province there are 40 townships at this point.

The northerly limit of township 38 is the nearest East and West township line that divide the Constituencies of the Province in two equal numbers, however leaving more cut off than added by it.

The said 28 Constituencies represent 73·0766 % of the total number of Automobile licenses.

The other 28 represent 26·9234 %.
